Dear Sponsor

this is a pleasure for her, to write you this letter as she takes this opportunity to ask you, how are you along with all your family? on her side, she is fine thanks to God.

Sponsor, among everything she likes, she is going to tell you about her favourite game which is box game.
This is one of her brothers who taught her how to play. because she had wanted someone to teach her how to play it. Well, this is how this game is played, you ~~make~~ draw a big square on a squared sheet of papers this is the box game.

Well, what is your interesting and favourite game you play with your friends if you have?

She thanks you so much for helping her so much with her school. She is asking you to pray for her so that she may succeed in school.
